

Alberta Beef Producers Young Creators Contest

Parent/Guardian Permission Form

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Your child has the opportunity to participate in the Alberta Beef Producers (ABP) Young Creators Contest. This voluntary contest encourages students to explore Alberta's beef industry through creative projects such as artwork, videos, podcasts, infographics, and other assignments designed for their age group.

By signing below, you acknowledge that:

- You give permission for your child to participate in the ABP Young Creators Contest
- You understand that contest entries may be featured on ABP websites, social media channels, publications, or displays
- You confirm that the submitted work is your child's original creation and follows the contest guidelines
- You grant Alberta Beef Producers permission to use your child's first name, age category, school, and contest entry for contest-related recognition and promotion.
- You have read and agree to the Young Creators Contest Terms and Conditions provided at the end of this form.

Contest Terms and Conditions

By entering the contest, participants agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Entrants must meet the eligibility requirements for the category they are entering.
2. All submissions must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe on any copyright, intellectual property rights, or applicable Canadian laws.
3. By submitting an entry, contestants grant Alberta Beef Producers a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide, and perpetual license to use, reproduce, publish, share, and display their work for educational, promotional, and administrative purposes, including on websites, social media channels, print publications, and other communications materials.
4. Alberta Beef Producers is not responsible for any loss, damage, injury, or expense arising from participating in the contest or the acceptance and use of any prize.
5. All judging decisions are final. By entering, contestants agree to abide by the results and decisions related to the contest.
6. Participants are expected to comply with all applicable laws and to respect the privacy, safety, and dignity of others in their submissions.
7. Alberta Beef Producers reserves the right to modify, postpone, suspend, or cancel the contest at any time if circumstances warrant.
8. Entries that do not follow the contest rules, contain inappropriate or offensive content, or are found to be fraudulent may be disqualified.
9. Alberta Beef Producers reserves the right to verify the identity, age, and eligibility of any entrant and may request parental or guardian consent for participants under the age of majority.
10. Personal information collected through the contest will be used solely for the administration of the contest and related communications, in accordance with Alberta Beef Producers' Privacy Policy.
11. By submitting an entry, contestants, and, where applicable, their parents or guardians acknowledge that they have read and agree to these terms and conditions.
